

Smithfield Packing Company was established in 1936 and currently has almost 7,000 employees in North Carolina at locations across the state. The company is a world leader in pork production and created the umbrella Smithfield Foods, the world's largest pork processor and hog producer.